DOCKET ENTRIES

Docket Date	Type	Subtype	Description	On Behalf Of	View
10/13/2025	Disposition (SC)	Orig Proc Dism (Williams)	The petition to invoke all writs jurisdiction is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction because the petitioner has failed to cite an independent basis that would allow the Court to exercise its all writs authority and no such basis is apparent on the face of the petition. See Williams v. State, 913

Description	On Behalf Of	View
September 4, 2025, and a Second Supplement to All Writs Petition on September 5, 2025. Said filings are treated as amendments to the petition to invoke all writs jurisdiction, filed with the Court on September 2, 2025, and are hereby stricken. Petitioner may file, on or before September 24, 2025, a motion to amend the petition to invoke all writs jurisdiction accompanied by an amended All Writs petition that fully complies with Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.100. Rule 9.100 requires that petitions to invoke this Court's original writ jurisdiction shall not exceed 50 pages in length and shall contain all of the petitioner's argument as to the basis for invoking the Court's jurisdiction, as well as argument in support of the petition and appropriate citations of authority. See Fla. R. App. P. 9.100(g). If petitioner files a motion and amended petition and the motion is granted, petitioner's petition to invoke all writs jurisdiction filed September 2, 2025 will be stricken, and the amended petition will be submitted to the Court. If petitioner does not file a motion and amended petition on or before September 24, 2025, the petition to invoke all writs jurisdiction filed on September 2, 2025 will be submitted to the Court.
